Madam President

The title "Mr. President" or Madam President may apply to a person holding the title of president, or presiding over certain other governmental bodies. Adopted in the 1790s by George Washington, the first president of the United States, as his official manner of address as head of state, "Mr. President" has subsequently been used by other governments to refer to their heads of state. It is the conventional translation of non-English titles such as Monsieur le Président for the ...
