The One Year Christian History (One Year Books): Rusten, E ...

Despite the obvious bias in historical perspective, The One Year Christian History is a great look at significant ways in which God has worked in and through his people throughout recorded human history. The book is a "this day in history" approach, but personally I found the skipping around from 5th Century B.C. to the year 2000 annoying.

The One Year Christian History - Personalized Bibles

This review was written for The One-Year of Christian History. This is an excellent book for daily devotional reading giving insights of God's working in the lives of so many men and women I have heard of who lived years ago, sometimes centuries ago! I certainly recommend it Was this review helpful?
